NATURE

What is the flower duty?
They perforate our heart with its beauty.
They spread happiness all over.
But they can't be with us forever.
They live for two or three days.
But they form a beautiful maze.
No one can steal its beauty
Unless the sun starts his duty.
The flowers are spread all over,
But they can't be with us forever.

Role of Youth in fighting Corruption

Corruption is a worldwide problem. It is an illegal activity. It is a problem because of which many people suffer. People because of their greediness, want more and more money. So, they cross their limits and start doing illegal activities. Corruption is an activity in which people take money illegally. It is against law. It is increasing enormously. Corruption makes the people too lazy and marks them greedy selfish. It is done when people are not honest. When they think that money is life, then they start doing these kinds of things. Many innocent people are cheated in this activity.

There is tremendous pressure on youth in every aspect like earning money, fighting against illegal activities etc. When it comes to corruption all the people look towards youth. Youth is the dynamite of the country which can do wonders if used properly. There is pressure on youth because today's youth is tomorrow's citizen. What youth does impacts the world in future. So, it is the moral responsibility of the youth to protect country. Another reason why youth is on lot pressure is because nearly more than half the population in the world constitutes of youth. They play an important role in our society. They can be useful if they are used in a proper way that means if they do good things. In our country youth is struggling a lot to eradicate corruption. In my opinion only youth can eradicate this sort of illegal activities .Youth especially in India are very much enthusiastic these days. Corruption includes bribery and embezzlement etc. Eradicating corruption makes the country rich because these will be no cheaters in the country. Youth really should think of ways and means to fight against corruption.

These are some principles through which we can eradicate corruption. Firstly self-enclosure that means being honesty. I don't say that youth should go and start wars or anything violent. Instead they should follow some steps through which they won't do such corruption like self-enclosure that I have mentioned above. We have to also see that we don't make a room for other people to blackmail us. We should believe in ourselves. We means youth have to do the activities which are not kept secret that means if we do a good work there is no need of secrecy but if we do some mistake then comes the word secret. As I mentioned we have to believe in ourselves. Faith in ourselves is developing faith in God. So, I finally conclude that it is the responsibility of youth to eradicate corruption. Youth is the only key which can lock the worst politics and illegal activities like fighting against corruption.

Ganesh Chaturthi Celebrations

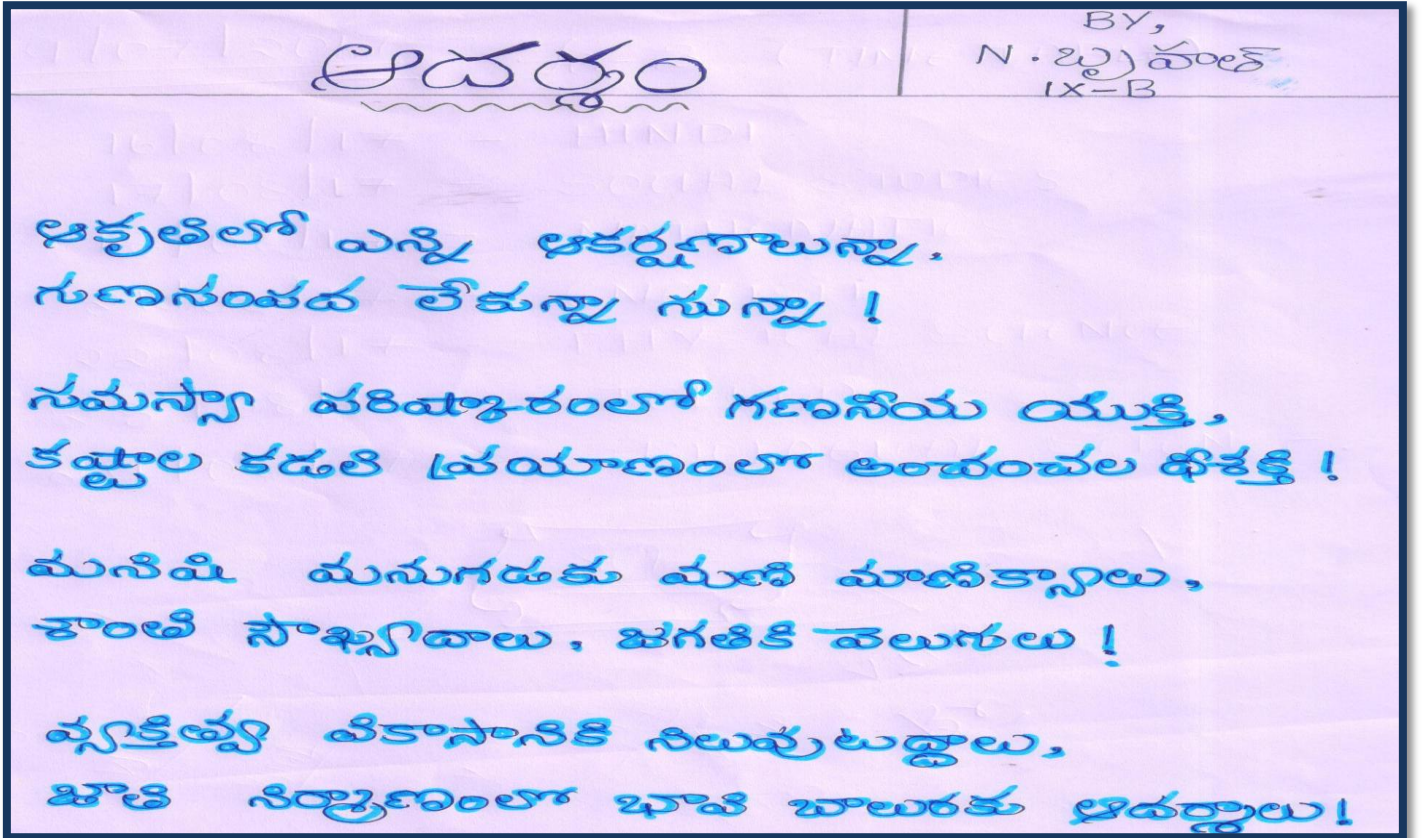

We celebrate Ganesh Chaturthi every year to honour the Elephant-headed God Ganesha's birthday. He is the elder son of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvathi. There are two different versions about Ganesha's birth. One has it that Goddess Parvathi created Ganesha out of dirt off her body while having a bath and set him to guard her door while she finishes her bath. Shiva who was gone out, returned at that time, but as Ganesh didn't know of him, stopped him from entering. An angry Shiva severed the head of Ganesha after a combat between the two. Parvathi was enraged and Shiva promised Ganesh will live again. The Devas who went in search of a head facing north of a dead person could manage only the head of an Elephant. Shiva fixed the Elephant's head on the child and brought him back to life.

The other legend has it that Ganesha was created by Shiva and Parvathi on request of the Devas, to be a Vighnakartaa (Obstacle-Creator) in the path of Rakshasas (Demonic beings), and a Vighnahartaa (Obstacle-mentor) to help the Devas.

The festival begins on Shukla Chaturthi which is the fourth day of the waxing moon period and ends on the 14th day known as Anant Chaturdashi. Maharashtra is the state known for grand scale Ganesh Chaturthi celebrations. During the festival colourful pandals (temporary shrines) are setup and the lord is worshiped for ten days. Lord Ganesh is also worshiped in Thailand, Cambodia, Indonesia, Afghanistan, Nepal and China.

To conclude...

The objective of education should be impressed on the children's minds. The academic education of today is shallow and useless because it has no value orientation.
